TOP BMX RIDERS TO COMPETE IN FREEDOM HALL

LOUISVILLE, KY (February 2, 2015) – BMX riders from across the country will ride into Louisville Friday, Feb. 6 – Sunday, Feb. 8, for the USA BMX Bluegrass Nationals and President's Cup in Freedom Hall. More than 1,000 amateur BMX riders from 30 states are expected to compete.

Racers from 2 to 70-years-old will jump dirt ramps and navigate obstacles in an action-packed sprint to the finish line. Racers will compete in qualifying rounds called motos to earn a spot in the main event. Competitors will have two chances to qualify for either semi-finals or final races. The races take place on a 1,000 foot dirt track that features hills, banked turns, obstacles and jumps.

The President's Cup features a state-versus-state competition, as the top three finishers from each state are tallied to select the winning state. All participants from the winning state will receive a custom jersey.

The Bluegrass Nationals is part of the national racing circuit, which features 30 races across the country. The racers compete for national points throughout the whole year to earn a spot in the final competition in November.

Racing starts on Friday at 5 p.m., Saturday at 11:30 a.m. and Sunday at 8 a.m. The event is free for spectators. Parking at the Kentucky Exposition Center is $8 per vehicle.
